Champions of the World! The best rider and motorcycle in the world are Italian.

Francesco Bagnaia and Ducati are world champions.
A fully Italian victory for the first time in the history of the MotoGP world championship.

After a record-breaking season with 32 podiums, 12 victories, 16 pole positions, this victory comes at the end of an unforgettable year for all Ducatisti.
A success that fills us with pride and that is about engineering excellence, talent, passion and dedication Made in Italy, that conquers the world.

Triple crown for Ducati that in addition to the Rider Title also won the Constructor world championship for the third consecutive year, and the Team Title for its second consecutive year thanks to its riders Francesco Bagnaia and Jack Miller.

Thanks to the riders, engineers, technicians and all the women and men in Ducati Corse and Ducati Lenovo Team and thanks to all the passionate Ducatisti that have cheered with us during this season.

Another mention goes to who accompanied us and contributed to the great successes of this MotoGP season: Pramac Racing, Gresini Racing MotoGP and VR46 Racing Team.

Last but not least, thanks to all the sponsors, partners and suppliers that supported us in this great adventure.

Now more than ever #ForzaDucati!
